

A Conversation on Race & Faith

Interfaith Philadelphia

CIVIL CONVERSATIONS

PART OF THE BEING PROJECT

A CONVERSATION • ON RACE • AND FAITH

January 17, 2019 | 6:30 - 8:30 pm

WHYY | 150 N. 6th St. | Philadelphia, PA 19106

In partnership with NewCORE \(New Conversation on Race & Ethnicity\) and WHYY, a group of prominent religious leaders will share stories and engage in a conversation on how race and racism informs their leadership and the communities they lead. Attendees will be invited to engage in their own small group discussion and storytelling activity. A light reception is included in the evening. Conversation moderated by Reverend Steven Lawrence.

This event is FREE and open to the public.

Conversationalists: Bishop Patricia Davenport, Rabbi David Straus, Reverend Bonnie Camarda, and Sheikh Anwar Muhaimin

Event Partners:

NewCORE

a new conversation
on race and ethnicity

This event will be live streamed on WHYY's website as part of their Civic Dialogue series.

Check Interfaith Philadelphia's Facebook page on January 17 for a link to that video.

For questions about this event, please contact Chelsea Jackson at:

cj@interfaithcenterpa.org or (215) 222-1012 x6

To support this FULL YEAR of programming and to learn more about public events, training programs, and a live recording of On Being in Philadelphia, click here!