Announcements

Monthly Vespers Wednesday Dec. 1st 7pm

We'll have our monthly alternate worship experience tonight: simple music, some meditative silence, a guiding question, and deep conversation. You can choose to attend in person in the sanctuary or online via Zoom. Bring your stories, bring your listening ears. We come to be together, and not to debate. All are welcome! For this month: "Encountering Joy"

Supporting W. Mt. Airy Family Affected by House Fire

"On the night of November 13th, 2021, a terrible fire engulfed the home of one of our dear neighbors in the 300 block of West Mount Airy Avenue, destroying the home and taking the lives of two members of the family; a 78-year-old great grandmother, and a 7-month-old infant. This awful tragedy has placed such a sudden, heavy burden on the family, and it goes without saying that they are utterly devastated and reeling from these losses in every way possible. We want to come together as a community to hold this mother, her two young boys, and the entire family in love and light and tangible support. With every meal prepared, we can ensure that this most basic need is fulfilled and that the stress of shopping and cooking is one less thing to deal with during this difficult time."

With gratitude, The 300 block of W Mt Airy Neighbors

The links below provide an additional means of helping them.

1. If you wish to make monetary gifts to show your support, please do so through this go fund me link: <https://gofund.me/706b46d3>
2. If anyone wishes to donate food and meals, please do so through the meal train site here: <https://mealtrain.com/oq0ggn>.
3. Household furniture needs are limited to one twin bed or futon. If you have one to donate, please email the family's next door neighbor who is handling this: hillary.burdette@gmail.com. (This may have since been donated.)

Campus 2050 N. Wilmot Rd.

Please wear your favorite sports jersey or the color orange.

This memorial is for all ages. There will be no drinking, smoking, or vaping.
NO EXCEPTIONS.

To RSVP text Dianna Diaz with your name(s) 520-390-1468 by Dec 3rd.

Linda H: I am joyful that I was able to be with my family for Thanksgiving. Keeping in my heart all those who are suffering.

Barbara P: I am thankful to have spent the weekend with my sister and brother in-law in Maryland. I am hoping for the survival of our planet and our democracy.

Tim S: Anguished over the ongoing gun violence in our city. Women, children and seniors are not even spared.

Bruce & Linda PJ: This week marks the one-year anniversary of my Dad, Bob Pollack, contracting COVID and passing in a week's time. I am thinking of him as we revisit places he loved in Italy. Rest in peace, Dad. You are deeply loved.

Craig S: I am worried that the newly discovered Covid variant will set back the struggle to protect people in the most vulnerable countries and communities in the world. I hope that we can find greater unity in seeking health, comfort and peace for all.

Bernadette LS: A husband of a friend's friend, Todd fell off the roof, broke his neck, had surgery yesterday at Reading Hosp, seems to have some movement - and my cousin's granddaughter having surgery tomorrow for breast cancer at 34, Melissa; prayers are so welcomed

Peter J: Please remember all those who are in need of material, physical, and/or emotional substance! Most of us are so fortunate! Let us also celebrate all the wonder that is the natural world (of which we are a part)!

Fern C: John and I were able to bring pie and whipped cream to Mom and Dad yesterday, my Sister and Brother-in-law brought the ice cream. We were able to all be together, including Mom's robotic cat, Isabelle, in a small conference room. Brothers called in for audio visits too. Dad said little but ate almost all of his pie with whipped cream and ice cream!

McKinley: Joy for KPs brother and sister-in-law who were wedded in Alabama. Sorrow and heartbreak for the families grieving in these holiday times.

Anne A: prayers for the family of Jessica the young woman shot after her baby shower. Her grandmom is my friend.
